1. The political differences within the Moslem League (the base of the Pakistan Government) continue.
2. The League strongholds in the Punjab and Sind have dissolved in order to undertake a new registry of members. The heads of the opposition are M. A. Khuro and Mian Muntaz Daulatana.
3. The government is considering the following changes: Foreign Ministry, Abdul Quaiyum Khan (present Minister of Industry) in place of Zafrullah Khan; Economy and Finance, Sardar Bahadur Khan (present Minister of Transportation) in place of Chaudhry Mohamed Ali; Interior Ministry, in place of Mustagh Gurmani, successor not decided.
4. The attitude towards Americans of part of the people, has become more unfriendly. The reasons--as always with such matters in Asiatic lands--are hard to determine. The influence of the ulemas in city and country is a sufficient reason.
